SENIOR CHAPTER DIRECTORS

Our July meeting date is here and that means we will be drawing tickets to see who wins all the great prizes we have in our St Jude Children’s Research Hospital Fund Raiser. At the time I’m writing this I don’t have a count on the number of tickets we have sold this year, I hope it will exceed our last year’s total, over 5,000. I know everyone has been working hard selling tickets and collecting items for the silent auction and gift baskets. I can tell you how much I appreciate all you do for St Jude, and I am extremely thankful to all of you. However, the real thanks will come when you go on the ride to St Jude in September and meet the parents of some of the children who are receiving treatment there and hear their stories of how their child’s life was saved and the praise they give the hospital and the staff for the work they do. All of those successes were made possible in part by the many thousands of fund raisers and donations collected by people just like you. So, if at all possible, make plans to go on the “Wings Across Tennessee Ride” in September, you won’t regret it, it’s heartwarming and rewarding as well as heartbreaking at times. Again, Thanks So much!! For all you have done for our Fund Raiser.

We have camping dates in July from the 24th to the 30th at Harpeth River Bridge Campground near Ashland City, everyone is welcome to join us all of those days or some of them, whatever you like. Ed, Mary Ann, Delores, Randy, Jeff and Geraldine are camping most of the week and Mac and Janice are coming on Thursday. If you want to join us and need help with reservations just give me a call, hopefully there will be sites open. Remember our annual campout at Long Branch Campground August 25-27, some of us will be going up on the 23rd. If you don’t camp be sure to come up on Friday night for the campfire and Saturday for the picnic in the afternoon, campfire and pass the trash Saturday night. We will probably have a game of pass the trash on Friday night as well. More information will be coming as the date grows closer.

But before the annual campout there is the Kentucky Blast Rally in Cave City, KY August 18-20, we are still trying to locate hotel rooms. The preregistration date has already past, that means the cost for registration is $5.00 more ($25.00 for GWRRA member) but that is about all it affects. We have had good turnouts for our Chapter Rides and visits to Sister Chapters this past month as well as the picnic in the park, we are planning more of the same type activities in the coming months, check your e-mail often so not to miss anything. As announced earlier, bowling days have been changed to Mondays at 9:00 am at the Smyrna Bowling Center on Sam Ridley Parkway and Weakley Lane, come join in the fun, you don’t have to be good bowler to have fun, just ask any one of us

Thanks to everyone for all you do for Chapter E.

Second Saturday monthly. Breakfast at 9:00 a.m., Social at 10:00 a.m.

We are Friends for Fun
Safety and Knowledge!

The first half of 2017 is in the record books, and admittedly it has been an extremely busy year thus far for Chapter E. Beginning the first day of the year with our customary New Years Day ride and luncheon, thru the District Winter Event, the Tennessee District Spring Fling convention, our weekly ride and bowling activities, the many sister Chapter visitations, our current St Jude Children's Research Hospital fundraising event, etc., it's been a busy six months. The great thing about it all, is that we haven't just attended, we've participated, and been recognized, even though we've only been in existence for a year and a half. The fun ain't over yet . . . activities such as the Kentucky District Convention, Chapter annual campout, Wings Across Tennessee Ride, continued Chapter visits, a planned weekend ride to Miss Pattie's and other rides/activities will continue to sustain the activity of the Chapter. We continue to experience a consistent number of participants at each of our activities, and in fact probably have one of the most active group of visitors to other Chapters within the District. For a relatively small Chapter our percentage of participants at each event maintains extremely high . . . thanks to each of our participants and the communication within the Chapter. Keep up the good work . . . remember, you get out of the Chapter, what you put into it. A major part of our success has to be as a result of everyone wanting to contribute and enjoy the time among friends and fellow motorcycle riders.

Everything is running like it should be, so let's just keep on, keepin' on. The great thing about the Chapter is that we have a solid teamwork organization. There's no drama, and that's a good thing, and one of the issues that we set out to avoid when we opened the Chapter. Good leadership, active/caring participants, and the "can do" attitude of everyone, has been the basis of our Chapter's strength . . . to that end, let us continue to wrap up 2017 as strong, as the first half of the year.

On another subject, let us express our gratitude to everyone in the Chapter for their assistance and emphasis in our fund raising event for St Judes. As the Chapter "E" coordinators of the project, it has made our job much easier. The fruits of our labor will be evident when we make our donation to St Judes in a few months.

Ride Safe, ride often.

2017 Couple of the Year

This month Walter and I will be heading to Chapter T in Powell, TN in an attempt to capture the Couple of the Year Plaque. We were headed there last month but I got a stomach bug and wasn't able to go. Chapter T will meet this month on July 25 they eat at 6 pm and meet at 7 pm at Shoney's. We invite you all to come on along with us in our attempt to bring the Couple of the Year Plaque home. They also have the Region N Plaque and the Tennessee Traveling Plaque, we will need at least 3 more members to come along in order to have a chance at those plaques. A lot of our chapter will be camping but if you are not camping and are available make plans to join us.

Its hard to believe that it's already July, this year is more than half over and so is our time as your Couple of the Year. Walter and I are having so much fun representing our chapter and just can't say enough what an honor it is to be your Couple of the Year.

So.....until next time Ride Safe and Stay Aware.

TRAIL BRAKE CONERING

Murray Dunkin

Chapter "E" Educator

In the 4 & ½ years I have been writing these articles, I can't help but write about the same things once and a while. I was recently riding with another group and someone commented about my brake lights being on while taking a corner. It's hard not to notice all the bright lights on a wing when the brakes are applied so I explained that I wasn't going too fast and panicking but was trail-braking through the corners. Since that topic is still on my mind, I'll take this opportunity to repeat myself. I hope the trike, sling and those that are already trail-braking riders don't get too bored.

I had not heard of the term until I noticed Randy and Berry had their brake lights on through curves in the mountains several years ago. I asked Randy about it and he informed me he was using trail-braking to control his speed through the corners. Well, if it worked for them, why not give it a try. I was amazed at how much easier it is to control the speed using the brakes instead of gradually rolling on and off the throttle. We all know how the gradual application of the throttle on a wing can send one into parts unknown which is what I was trying to do in a curve.

Everyone should know by now how to choose a line through the turn and then use counter-steering to make the turn. Make the curve as long as possible by choosing the outside, inside (apex), outside line through the turn. When the line for a turn is chosen, slow to a safe speed, look at the apex of the curve, roll on a little throttle, apply a little brake then use the counter-steer method to initiate the turn. This is when trail-braking is used to control the line of the bike through the curve. If you find that you are over-shooting the curve, smoothly apply more brake to slow you down and increase the bikes lean to tighten the turn. Conversely, if you are under-shooting the turn, apply less brake to decrease the bikes lean to lengthen the turn. Be sure to keep a constant throttle and counter-steer while adjusting the line through the turn with the brake. When the apex is reached, roll on the throttle, gradually use less brake and counter-steer to straighten the bike. While doing all this, keep your eyes moving and looking for hazards and escape routes. Also remember that you are going to go where your eyes are looking.

Easy-Peasy. All it takes is a little practice and then you too can enjoy the fun of rolling through a perfect curve.

Ride Safe, Ride Smart and SEE you on the next ride,

Murray

Another Busy Month

Our Motorist Awareness Events continue to thrive with our events at Wal-Mart. Chapter E went to Sports Com in Murfreesboro to watch the fire works show and we made that a Motorist Awareness Event. We brought our motorcycles and talked to the public about Motorist Awareness.

Ride Safe.

June's 50/50 was won by Troy Hurt and Max Thomas.

MEPC Tip of the Month

All too often, we hear that we are active in recruiting new members for our Chapter and GWRRA. But, when we question who the prospect was, we hear that it was just a casual contact, or that the member making the contact gave them a pamphlet, or briefly explained the program, or invited the prospect to our next Chapter Social.

In essence, when we speak to a prospect, we are helping to sell the overall GWRRA program to that person. What we have found to be the actual glitch is that many times we have neglected to really obtain follow up contact information of the prospect. So, that means that we must rely on them to remember to either re-contact us, or to plan to attend our next social. The point here, is that throughout the hustle and bustle of today’s busy lives, we are asking the prospect to take action to continue the relationship or conversation about joining GWRRA. So often, we only have a matter of a few minutes to explain only a few benefits of joining GWRRA, which only equates to the tip of the ice berg. There are many benefits to our organization, that when explained accurately, in some detail, may lead to the prospect’s actual interest in joining GWRRA.

It’s always best to have someone who is versed in the many benefits of GWRRA, to include Rescue Plus, to help inform a prospect on membership. Whether or not you realize it, you’re selling the program when you speak with a prospect about becoming a member, and participant in our Chapter. Any experienced sales person will tell you that you can tell anyone about a program or product, but it’s crucial that you ask them to buy (or as a salesman would say “close” the sale). In order to do that you must be prepared to answer the majority of the questions that a prospect might have, or at least defer the question until you can get the proper answer. That’s why it’s critical to have a knowledgeable individual speak with a prospect.

Now, here’s our point. If you don’t get contact information from the prospect, name and phone number, how can you or anyone else hope to contact them, to seriously discuss the benefits of GWRRA, and to attempt to “close” the sale. We’ve been involved in closing a large number of memberships for GWRRA. Many of them have been by a secondary meeting over coffee, or even sitting in the prospects living room, in a situation where we have sufficient time to fully explain our program, answer the prospects questions, and complete the application.

If you’re prepared to handle all of the questions and fully explain the program, then great, get “ur” done. But, if you don’t have the full information, then just briefly explain what GWRRA is about, get follow up/contact information, and tell the prospect that an officer from the Chapter will be contacting them. Then refer the prospect to a fully knowledgeable officer.

Just remember, you or no one else can follow up on a prospect, if we don’t know how to reach them. It’s really a dis-service to someone, if they don’t have the full scoop on what we’re all about. Help us to perpetuate GWRRA, and keep our Chapter and organization strong. Your also recruiting persons with whom you will be riding. Ride Safe, Ride Often!

By the time this is published in our Newsletter we will have celebrated one of the most, if not the most important holiday related to our history as a free nation; Independence Day, most commonly referred to as “The 4th of July”. On July 4, 1776 the Continental Congress adopted The Declaration of Independence and to this day that date is celebrated as the Birth Date of American Independence. The symbol of that Independence is the American Flag, a symbol that should be honored and respected by each and every person who enjoys the freedom, opportunities and riches we all have in this Great Country. So many have fought and died for what that Flag stands for, yet every day we see in the news people in this country desecrating it during some type of protest. In the past few months I have seen high school students using the American Flag as some sort of super hero cape, Olympic athletes doing the same, a famous race car driver was dragging it around and even stepping on it after the 24 Hours of Daytona Race this Spring . Young and old alike refuse to or don’t stand and remove their hats and salute during the presentation of the Flag, some of the highest paid athletes in the country protest by kneeling instead of standing. Protest what; the freedoms they have and how rich they are getting. As a Veteran I am proud to have served under that Flag and I honor and respect everyone who served this country in whatever capacity. So please, whenever the National Anthem is played, the Pledge of Allegiance is recited or the Flag of the United States of America is presented, stand and salute in the way that is appropriate to show your respect and yes, your love for what it stands for.

Randy Galloway

Pledge of Allegiance and National Anthem [\[edit\]](#)

- When reciting the Pledge of Allegiance, all present should stand at attention facing the flag with their right hand over their heart, with the exception of those in uniform who shall salute.
- The National Defense Authorization Act of 2008 contained an amendment to allow un-uniformed service members, military retirees, and veterans to render a hand salute during the hoisting, lowering, or passing of the U.S. flag.

A later amendment further authorized hand-salutes during the national anthem by veterans and out-of-uniform military personnel. This was included in the Defense Authorization Act of 2009, which President Bush signed on Oct. 14, 2008. Public Law 113-66, enacted on 26 December 2013, reaffirmed this authorization.

- When the national anthem is played or sung:
 1. Designation: The composition consisting of the words and music known as the Star-Spangled Banner is the national anthem.
 2. Conduct During Playing: During a rendition of the national anthem:
 1. When the flag is displayed:^[23]
 - a. Individuals in uniform should give the military salute at the first note of the anthem and maintain that position until the last note;
 - b. members of the Armed Forces and veterans who are present but not in uniform may render the military salute in the manner provided for individuals in uniform; and
 - c. all other persons present should face the flag and stand at attention with their right hand over the heart, and men not in uniform, if applicable, should remove their headdress with their right hand and hold it at the left shoulder, the hand being over the heart; and
 2. When the flag is not displayed, all present should face toward the music and act in the same manner they would if the flag were displayed.

What can I say about Spring Fling. Patti and I met with Pete Smith today and got everything signed and ready for next year. The main event, vendors, hospitality, training, COY meet and greet, bike show, light show, and masters breakfast will be at Country Cascades. The Opening ceremony will be at Country. The Talent show and Closing ceremonies will be at Ramada. We will have a dinner and show at the new Dolly Parton mountain adventures show. We will put out more details in upcoming newsletters and e mails. Patti and I are confident this is going to be one of our best Spring Flings with you help it will be.

Patti has started working on Winter Event. She will be working with our staff in the next few months.

Slow-Cooker Chicken and Dressing

- | | | |
|--|---------------------------------------|---|
| (4) Cups shredded cooked chicken | (6) cups coarsely crumbled corn bread | (8) slices firm white bread, torn into pieces |
| (2) Cans chicken broth (about 14oz each) | (4) large eggs, lightly beaten | (3) ribs of celery, chopped (about 3/4 cup) |
| (2) cans (10 3/4 oz. each) cream of chicken soup | (1) cup chopped onion | (1) teaspoon ground sage |
| (1) teaspoon black pepper | (1) teaspoon salt | (1) stick butter, at room temperature |

Cooking spray, for misting the cooker

- Place the chicken, corn bread, white bread, chicken broth, cream of chicken soup, onion, celery, eggs, sage, pepper, and salt in a large mixing bowl. Stir to combine well.
- Mist a 5-quart round slow cooker with cooking spray and add the chicken mixture to the cooker. Dot the top with the butter. Cover the cooker and cook until the eggs are done, 3 to 4 hours on high heat or 7 hours on low heat. Stir the chicken before serving.
- Serves 8 to 10
- Prep: 25 to 30 minutes
